

Learning & sustaining from NCM:
Our approaches to workforce planning & development

Monday 26th February 2018, 10am – 4pm
Park Plaza Hotel Nottingham

9.30am	Registration and refreshments
10am	Welcome and introduction Karen Scott, Workforce Projects Lead, New Care Models Programme, NHS England
10.15am	Overview of Workforce Approaches What do we know about workforce planning in new care models? Karen Scott, Workforce Projects Lead, New Care Models Programme, NHS England
10.45am	Nottinghamshire approach Jackie Hewlett-Davies Programme Manager – Workforce Greater Nottingham Health & Care Partners
11.30am	Refreshment break
11.45am	Understanding opportunities & barriers to collaborative workforce planning Tables to be led by colleagues from vanguard areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What has worked well & why • What have been the challenges • What would assist you or others in future?
12.45pm	Lunch & networking
1.30pm	Lincolnshire neighbourhood approach Kirsteen Redmile Lead Change Manager – Integrated Care STP System Delivery Unit Lincolnshire
2pm	Workforce planning & modelling for systems: What can we do to enable systems to embed workforce planning & modelling approaches into their everyday practice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What can you do locally? • How can ALB's assist?
3.00pm	Next steps Karen Scott, Workforce Projects Lead, New Care Models Programme, NHS England
3.30pm	Thank you and close