

Equalities Lunch and Learn Empower Hour

Practising inclusive leadership: insights and evidence from the Messenger Review

10th August
12:30pm - 1:30pm

- The Messenger Review of NHS Leadership; practical insights for embedding social justice, equality, diversity and inclusion for NHS colleagues and clinicians
- How taking an EDI and social justice approach in leadership and management can positively impact your teams and services
- Hear from Clare Price Dowd, Head of Leadership & Lifelong Learning, Midlands, Joy Warmington MBE, CEO, BRAP, Jennifer Caguioa, International Recruitment and Ethnic Minorities Nurse Advisor as NHS England and Tracie Jolliff, Messenger Review Contributor and Head of Inclusive Systems Leadership at NHS England

Scan the QR code or search 'inclusive leadership' on NHS events

Meaningful conversations for curious leaders

- Social justice, equality, diversity, inclusion and protected characteristics coaching
- Lead out loud with compassion and kindness
- The insider track on NHS leadership
- Develop the behaviours and values that create meaningful change for patients
- Debate national themes and improve your leadership practice
- Peer-to-peer support

You are invited to reserve your place - join the national EDI space on Future NHS

