

Health and Justice workforce events

NHS England's Health and Justice, Inclusive Workforce Programme is holding a series of events to promote findings and resources from the programme, with the aim of supporting health and justice commissioners, providers and other interested stakeholders to help address workforce issues.

Please visit NHS England's event page to register your interest in any of the below events. We look forward to seeing you there.

12 October 2022, 2-3pm
Findings from the first national Health and Justice workforce benchmarking exercise (for the secure estate).

Open to all.

26 October 2022, 2-3pm
Exploring race equality and the Health and Justice workforce: A deep dive by the Race Equality Foundation plus training resources.

Open to all.

9 November 2022, 2-3.30pm
Future proofing the Health and Justice nursing workforce: Highlighting innovative ways to attract the next generation of newly qualified nurses, nursing associates and student nurses.

Open to all, particularly those involved in organising student nurse placements and nursing preceptorship programmes.

23 November 2022, 2-3pm
Recruiting people with lived experience: findings from the Breaking Barriers Innovations peer-led research project, plus useful tools and resources.

Open to all.

15 December 2022, 1-2pm
Using commissioning to develop Health and Justice workforces: How to access and use the new toolkit.

For all stakeholders responsible for Health and Justice commissioning, and others with a professional interest.

25 January 2023, 2-3pm
Helping to ensure an effective Health and Justice pharmacy workforce: An overview of pre-qualification training, student placements and structured medication review accreditation, plus Q&A.

For pharmacy leads, interested commissioners, pharmacy education & training leads, higher education institutes and education providers delivering pharmacy training.

1 February 2023, 12-1pm
Helping Health and Justice peer support workers gain access to prison settings: HMPPS answer your security and vetting questions.

Open to all.

22 February 2023, 2-3pm
Building the best Health and Justice workforce: launch of the non-custodial Career and Competence Framework, designed by Skills for Health.

For those working with/in Liaison and Diversion, Healthcare in criminal court settings, Mental Health Treatment Requirements, RECONNECT and Enhanced RECONNECT.

8 March 2023, 2-3pm
Health and Justice regional workforce planning and networking event: building a network of workforce leads.

For Health and Justice regional workforce leads, provider workforce leads and all others with a professional interest in workforce development.

29 March 2023, time TBC
Health and Justice Lived Experience Charter awards event, hosted by Career Matters.

For those involved in the Lived Experience Charter. Also open to interested parties working to recruit those with lived experience of the criminal justice system, local authority care and homelessness.

To find out more about the Inclusive Workforce Programme please visit join the Future NHS Collaboration Platform. Also check out the Health and Justice careers e-module free online. Please click here to register for the events.

For any queries relating to the Inclusive Workforce Programme please email hj.workforce@nhs.net