

Agenda Regional Event – Midlands and The East
12th November 2018

The Venue @DMU
20 Western Boulevard, Leicester, LE2 7BU
De Montfort University

Aims of the day

- To inspire and celebrate the existing nursing and midwifery ambassadors
- To recruit new nursing and midwifery ambassadors
- To co-develop resources for the ambassadors' January challenge – an extraordinary career for young people.
- To develop local action plans for the nursing and midwifery ambassadors in Midlands and The East.

The event will begin promptly at 1000 and we will finish by 1600.

Timings	Description	Lead
0930	Registration and coffee
1000	Welcome and introductions	Paul Vaughan
1015	Video address Jane Cummings
1020	Welcome from Head of School of Nursing DMU	Chris Witney-Cooper, Head of School of Nursing and Midwifery, De Montfort University
1025	Setting the scene and ice breaker	Liz Carter
1030	Background to the work and update	Paul Vaughan
1045	A Richer Narrative	Professor Alison Leary
1130	Coffee
1145	The ambassadors' story to date and in your region:	Bev Matthews
1230	Review of resources	23Red
1300	Lunch
1345	Learning Disabilities Nursing	Simon Jones Nurse Consultant Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust

1400	General Practice Update	Anna Capasso, NHS England: Head of General Practice Nursing Programme, Midlands and East,
1415	Roundtable on aspects of nursing and midwifery – building on the resources	Bev Matthews
1500	Key messages going forward	All
1515	Developing local action plans around 30 day challenges	All
1545	Closing messages and check out	Paul Vaughan
1600	Close	