

TB Prevention & Care in England: 2025 Learn and Share

11th July 2025, 10am – 4:30pm, Mary Ward House, London

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

10am	Registration & coffee
10.30am	Welcome and introduction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Professor Onn Min Kon, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust
10.35am	National overview - What is happening with TB care in England and how is future delivery being considered? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> National NHSE LTBI Programme update Jeff Featherstone, Deputy Director of Infectious Disease & AMR Prevention, NHS England National TB Unit update Esther Robinson, Head of TB Unit, UKHSA TB Epidemiology update Suzanne Coles, Consultant in Public Health Medicine – Communicable Disease Control, UKHSA
11.15am	The patient experience Samara Barnes, Affected Community Co-Lead, UK Advocacy for the Prevention of Tuberculosis (UKAPTb)
11.30am	Screening healthcare workers for TB infection Qiagen
11.40am	Shared challenges and opportunities to manage population health Matt Fagg, Director of Prevention and Long Term Conditions, NHSE
11.50am	Implementing findings and recommendations from the Getting It Right First Time TB Review Dr Martin Allen, GIRFT National Clinical Lead for Respiratory Medicine
12.10pm	Getting It Right First Time Breakout sessions
12:40pm	Networking lunch (45 mins)
1.25pm	Partnership working in TB care <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Investigation of an ongoing cluster of TB cases associated with prisons, England Tracey Langham, Lead Nurse, National TB Unit, UKHSA The ICB Approach to TB Prevention: Commissioning, Governance & Collaboration Dr. Sudhakar Shinde, Nottingham, Nottinghamshire ICB Integrated Care for TB: Strengthening delivery and partnerships Mark Pierce, Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland ICB

2.05pm	TB Alert & TB Advisory Group: TB action and awareness in England Helen Clegg, TB Communications Lead, TB Alert Amy McConville, Chair and Facilitator, TB Action Group (TBAG)
2.20pm	Working together to reduce the burden of TB in England Revvity
2.30pm	Refreshments & networking (25 mins)
2:55pm	Clinical delivery <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Optimising medicines supply and navigating shortages Zahir Rashid and Ezabella Ayela, MPSC Team, NHSE Outpatient procedure coding in Secondary Care Alice Bull, Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust
3.25pm – 4.25pm	A community of practice: sharing learning (choose one session per time slot)
3.30pm	Session 1: Raising awareness of TB through education and outreach Seher Sheikh, BHA TB Project	Session 2: Delivering LTBI treatment in partnership Duncan Trathen, NHS North East London ICB
3.55pm	Session 3: Increased caseload in low incidence areas – barriers and solutions Newcastle Upon Tyne NHS FT TB Service	Session 4: Reviewing Enhanced Case Management
4.25pm	Return to plenary and closing remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Professor Marc Lipman, Royal Free London NHS FT
4:30pm onwards	Networking & drinks For those how have time and would like to, please join us at The Marquis Cornwallis, 31 Marchmont Street, London, WC1N 1AP

