

Building a Healthy Sustainable Society: An event to support STP implementation
Thursday 19 October 2017, Coin Street Conference Centre, London SE1 9NH

09.30	Registration and refreshments – 3rd floor foyer
10.00	Market Place Open	Opening comments/welcome – in Max Nasatyr room, 3 rd floor – Dr Caroline Jessel, Lead for Sustainability and Health, NHS England South
10.05		Keynote Address – Dr Michael Dixon, National Clinical Champion for Social Prescribing, NHS England and Chair, College of Medicine
10.30		Current progress on STPs – Nigel Acheson, Regional Medical Director, NHS England and Jenny Harries, Regional Director, Public Health England
10.55		Questions
11.05		Refreshments and market place – South Bank Foyer/South Bank 1 (Basement)
11.20		Workshops – choice of 5
		Max Nasatyr Room, 3 rd floor Designing healthy communities around green spaces Alan Carter, The Land Trust and Julia Thrift, Town & Country Planning Association	South Bank 2, Basement The Social Prescribing Network Bev Taylor, NHS England and Malcolm Bray, West Sussex County Council	Fred Miller Room, 3 rd floor Wellbeing Exeter Jo Yelland, Integrated Care Exeter and Martha Wilkinson, Devon Community Foundation	South Bank 3, Basement Natural Choices Maria Clarke, Dorset Local Nature Partnership	Lil Patrick Room, 3 rd floor The Blackthorn Trust Dr Peter Hanrath and colleagues, The Blackthorn Trust
12.20		Lunch and market place – South Bank Foyer/South Bank 1 (Basement)
13.10		Patient Voice: What is a sustainable health and social care system? – Andy Williamson
13.20		How can we best support an increasingly older population to remain independent and resilient while listening to their needs? – Patricia Wilkie, President and Chair, National Association of Patient Participation
13.45	Keynote Address – Sir Sam Everington, Chair of NHS Tower Hamlets CCG
14.10	Questions
14.20	Workshops – choice of 5
	Max Nasatyr Room, 3 rd floor Building the evidence for social sustainability and health Prof Jane South, Leeds Beckett University	South Bank 2, Basement Social prescribing and how we can deliver it Dr Simon Opher GP, Gloucester	Fred Miller Room, 3 rd floor What makes a healthy town? Allison Dugall, Kent County Council and Kevin McGeough, Ebbsfleet Development Corporation	South Bank 3, Basement Health & Wellbeing - a view from the grassroots Charles Whitehead, Transition Town Tooting	Lil Patrick Room, 3 rd floor The Lightbox Marilyn Scott, The Lightbox gallery and museum in Woking
15.20	Tea and market place – South Bank Foyer/South Bank 1 (Basement)
15.35	Embedding social value – David Pencheon, National Director, Sustainable Development Unit
16.00	Panel discussion: Scaling up and moving forward
16.25	Closing remarks – Dr James Mapstone, Deputy Regional Director, PHE
16.30	CLOSE					