

South West Gram-negative blood stream reduction event
Tuesday 12th March 2019

10.00am – 15.45pm

Somerset County Cricket Club, Taunton TA1 1JT

<https://www.somersetcountyycc.co.uk/visiting/non-match-day-information/>

At this event you will:

- Learn about improvement methodology
- Hear from other teams who will present their improvement projects
- Begin to develop your own system improvement plans based upon your risk areas/data

Time	Session
09.30	Registration
10.00	Welcome & purpose of day Penny Smith, Director of Nursing and Quality, South West, NHS England
10.15	Quality Improvement – an overview Rani Virk, QI Advisor, NHS Improvement
11.15-13.00	Sharing the learning using QI
11.15	Case study (1) – Learning from the UTI Collaborative, Nottingham University Hospitals NHS FT
11.35	Refreshments
11.45	Case study (2) – Using QI methodology in practice Samantha Matthews, Nurse Consultant IPC and Tissue Viability, North Bristol NHS Trust
12.05	Case study (3) “Good Hydration” project, Oxford AHSN
12.25	Case study (4) David Ladenheim, GNBSI reduction project, Senior Pharmaceutical Advisor, NHS East and North Hertfordshire CCG
12.45	Q&A session
13.00	LUNCH
13.40	System working Facilitated planning - each system to look at their data, risk factors and begin to develop plans for 2019-2020 and agree top 3-5 priorities
15.30-15.45	Next steps and closing remarks Penny Smith, Director of Nursing and Quality, South West, NHS England