

Sandy Park

GETTING TO SANDY PARK

Sandy Park is conveniently located just off Junction 30 of the M5, meaning travel to us from Devon and beyond is extremely straightforward.

We are also 10 minutes away from Exeter Airport, on a main cycle route, served by both Digby and Sowton and Newcourt railway stations and within easy reach of Exeter City Centre.

VISITING BY CAR

There is an on-site car park at Sandy Park with over 500 spaces. We work with Premier Park who operate an Automatic Plate Recognition (ANPR) system whereby all vehicle registrations will be captured on arrival and departure by camera. All visitors will need to enter their vehicle registration number at one of the machines in the car park. There is no need to display the receipt in the vehicle once paid. Visitors can top up at a machine or by RingGo if overstayed.

Charges are as follows:

Up to 1 hour: £1.00

Up to 5 hours: £2.50

Up to 14 hours: £4.50

Up to 24 hours: £6.00

VISITING BY BICYCLE

Sandy Park is on a main cycle route and can be easily reached from all directions. There are cycle racks on site where you can leave your bike.

There is no on-site parking on match days. Find out more about getting to Sandy Park on Exeter Chiefs match days on the website.

All prices in this brochure are correct as of October 2018.

VISITING BY BUS

South West Falcon (Plymouth to Bristol)

This is a 24/7 coach service providing connections between Plymouth, Exeter, Taunton, Bristol Airport and Bristol City Centre. Tickets can be pre-booked via megabus.com or bought direct from the driver on the day of travel.

Visit www.swfalcon.com to find out more.

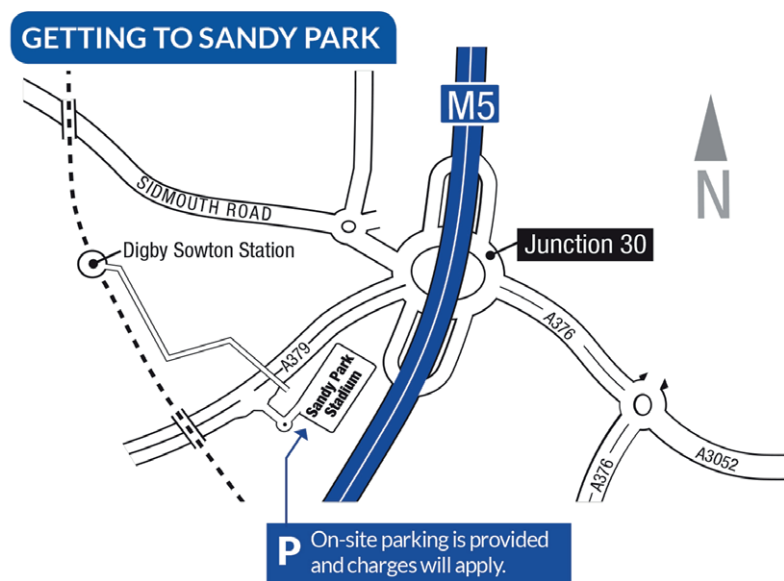

Service 9/9A (Exeter to Sidmouth)

Buses from Exeter city centre run up to every half hour, 7 days a week.

VISITING BY RAIL

Sandy Park has two rail stations in close proximity, both on the Avocet Line between Exeter and Exmouth. Travellers to and from Exeter are advised to alight at Digby & Sowton, whereas those travelling to or from Exmouth should use Newcourt. Both stations are clearly signposted from Sandy Park and are approximately a 15 minute walk away.

Alternatively, Exeter's two main rail stations, Exeter St David's and Exeter Central are located approximately 5 miles from Sandy Park. Taxis are available at both stations with an approximate journey time of 15 minutes.
